Miss Jane Webster, Edward Klanjac Speak Wedding Vows Sunday

St. Philip's Catholic Church was the scene of the Sunday rites uniting Jane Delores Webster and S-Sgt. Edward L. Klanjac. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Anderson, pastor before the candlelighted altar with baskets of white gladioli and mums in the background.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Webster of Northmoor Gardens and Sgt. Klanjac is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Klanjac of Centerville, Iowa.

Nuptial music was played by Mrs. Vernon Dexter, organist and Ferris Kincaid, soloist, of Pahokee, sang "O Perfect Light" and "Ave Maria."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over tulle and her hair was styled with a V-neckline edged with tulle and long sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The groom's body was fastened in the back with five covered buttons. The bride's train was worn over a chapel train with knee length overskirt of Chantilly lace scalloped at bottom. Her four tiered finger-tip veil of tulle fell from a head-dress, outlined in satin, tulle and seed pearls. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of white roses and orchids with a cascade of white ribbons.

Bill Bailey was her cousin's matron of honor and wore a ballerina length aqua gown of Chantilly lace over tulle, fashioned with a scoop neck, fitted bodice and full skirt over crinoline. Her headpiece matched the dress with baby lilies, ivy and croton leaves and streamers of tulle and ribbon.

Miss Marianne Womack, cousin of the bride, Miss Montine Doollittle and Mrs. Johnny Jackson of Clewiston were bridesmaids.

New Battle Rages on Delaware River
Affects National Waterways

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—A new battle raging on the Delaware River will have far-reaching effects on all the nation's waterways.

Through its Chairman, Harry G. Schatz, the Joint Executive Committee for the Improvement and Development of the Delaware River Channel fight before the nation's legislative bodies to secure the continuation of the nation's waterway program.

The last Congress authorized the development of the Delaware River from Philadelphia to Boston, N. J., by authorizing the improvement, Congress had approved the request of the Bureau of the Budget that no further money be required to contribute to the cost of the project.

However, contrary to the expressed wishes of Congress, the current budget of the Federal Government has included a supplementary request for funds to start the development of the Delaware River.

At a press conference on Jan. 18, President Truman endorsed the proposal that local interests should be heard in the Federal waterway improvements program as the Delaware River is a new national project. The President emphasized that it would not be decided whether the new project should be achieved through the Federal Government or through the States.

Taxes on gasoline and automobile products accounted for more than 80 per cent of the money collected from manufacturers' excise taxes levied by the federal government in fiscal 1954. The federal taxes on gasoline and lubricating oils brought in $804,000,000. Other federal automotive taxes came to $1,305,000,000.

Farm Credit Folks Attend Conference In Columbia, S. C.

Chas. B. Long, Secretary of the Farmers Production Credit Association of Miami and Gilbert Lanham, local representative, have returned from the 12th Anniversary Conference of Production Credit Associations. Other officers and directors attending the conference were G. E. Butler, Jr., Walter Peterson and Harry E. Matthews, to join with 531 other credit officials and their wives of the Third Land Bank District, comprised of Georgia, Florida, North and South Carolina.

Reports submitted to the conference showed that the 87 associations in the Columbia district have retired all government capital. Farmers capital and reserves amount to $22,971,774—an increase of $1,261,370 during the year. The associations had 87,508 stockholders and made loans for approximately $111,000,000—an increase of nearly $1,000,000 over the previous year.

Forty-one associations own lands and buildings with an investment of $653,227. At the State meeting, representatives from the Florida associations voted to hold their 1956 conference at Miami, Florida.

Secretary Long, of the local district, said there were a number of outstanding addresses made at the conference. He said the conference was a success in that it brought together a number of credit officials from all over the country for the purpose of exchanging ideas and information.

and its year-round flying was.

I'm looking forward with anticipation to a busy schedule of visits and talks in Florida this week. After attending the Miami-Miami Springs Chamber of Commerce banquet, Saturday night, my itinerary calls for appearances Monday night at the St. Petersburg Contractors and Builders Association; Tuesday night at a joint civic luncheon at the Clearwater sponsored by the Lions; and Tuesday night before the Florida Sheriffs' Association, in convention at Clearwater.

These travels about Florida always bring into perspective the fabulous development of our state, as I watch the fascinating growth in areas from Pensacola to Key West.

Congratulations are in order for the Sheriffs' Association for a particularly successful legislative program. The sheriffs, with an eye toward cooperation in law enforcement, won passage of bills including their plan for a Sheriffs Bureau.

Progress is being made toward confirmation of Florida's Richard Mack as a member of the Federal Communications Commission. The Senate Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce has set a hearing June 16 on Richard's nomination by President Eisenhower.

As a member of this Committee, I will be in the position to help him attain this honor and this major post in the government.

Wedding bells have rung in my office. Miss Ann Lipsey, secretary, was married June 12 to Mr. Bob Kane, Attorney, Justice Department. She has been replaced by Miss Mary Jane Malin of Bradenton.

PEACH SEASON GOOD HERE, according to Mrs. L. J. Rogers, of Indian Mound, pictured with sample jars of 100 quarts of jelly, pickled and canned peaches, she canned during the past two weeks. The amazing part is the fruit was picked from three small peach trees in the yard. Two of the trees bore fruit for the first time this year and the other had quite a crop last year. The small trees are the Ceylon variety imported from the Ceylon Islands and the fruit is very small but tart and of a wonderful flavor. Mrs. Rogers says, "They are delicious eaten with sugar and cream and in pies." She did not know how many bushels the tree produced but said the branches were loaded with fruit and almost on the ground. All told after giving peaches away she said a total of about 115 quarts were picked from the three trees. The Rogers are from Michigan and were residents of the South Bay for three years before buying the home on a two acre tract of land from Mr. and Mrs. George Rawley last September. They have had many visitors taking pictures of their three-tree peach orchard with their bumper crop of peaches. Mr. Rogers is manager of the dehydrating plant at Vel Vita Farms.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

WASHINGTON — Emergency aid for three Latin-American countries is gaining impetus in Congress with Senate authorization for $17,000,000 to be spent in the fight against back-door Communism. The Senate has accepted, in an overwhelming voice vote, my amendment to set up the $17,000,000 in the Mutual Security authorization bill, for Bolivia, Guatemala and Haiti. Authority for the emergency aid to these three countries is essential to prevent Communism from again gaining a foothold here virtually at our backdoor.

At the same time, the measure demonstrates our sincerity in our move to implement and promote mutual understanding and goodwill with our neighbors to the south. The amendment made a substantial contribution toward making the Western Hemisphere a safer area of strength in the cause of freedom. The Florida Congressional delegation is working to get for Florida a helicopter school which the Army is planning to establish. A $1,000,000 appropriation for the school has been approved by the House Appropriations Committee, and the proposed facility is under consideration in the Senate. We are urging Army Secretary Robert Stevens to consider Florida's advantages—such as its reputation for close cooperation with the Armed Services.

We would like your help in determining the question of the Dove Hunting Season Dates for the hunting regulations for 1955-1956.

The State of Florida's dove season is coming up for consideration with the U. S. Wildlife Service.

A certain number of days will be allotted to be used between September 1, 1955 and January 10, 1956.

Last year we had a split season from October 11-30 and from December 11-30.

What would be your choice if we got 50 half days and bag limit of 10 doves per day?

Please check below the answers suitable to your area.
